

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR EMPLOYEES

1. Purpose of this Notice

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This Notice explains how we collect, use and share personal information about individuals employed to work at the Learn to Live Federation in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation \(UK GDPR\), the Data Protection Act 2018, and the Data Use & Access Act 2025, henceforth collectively known as 'data protection legislation'.

We will comply with the data protection principles when gathering and using personal information as set out in our Data Protection Policy and are committed to protecting the privacy and security of our employees' personal information.

2. Data Controller

As a public authority, we are a 'data controller' which means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you.

The Learn to Live Federation is known as the 'Data Controller' for data protection legislation purposes and is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) under registration numbers ZA259841 (Bidwell Brook School) and Z5989908 (Ellen Tinkham School).

- ensure safeguarding, duty of care, and monitoring the health and welfare of our employees

5. Legal Basis for processing

When processing personal data about our employees, we rely upon the following legal bases, which are set out in Article 6 of the UK GDPR.

- it is necessary for us to perform a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of our official duties (eg education provision)
- it is necessary for us to comply with a specific legal obligation (eg employment law, tax law)
- it is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party, or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject, prior to entering into a contract
- the data subject has provided their consent
- it is necessary to protect the vital interests of a person (eg emergency medical care)

When we process special category data about our employees, we rely on one or more of the following additional legal bases, as set out in Article 9 of the UK GDPR:

- the data subject has given us their explicit consent
- it is necessary for us to carry out our obligations and exercise our or the data subject's specific rights relating to employment, employment law, social security and social protection law
- processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of a person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- it is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal claim
- it is necessary for the assessment of the working capacity of an employee
- it is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest

Other legal bases listed in Article 9 of the UK GDPR may also apply, depending on the processing required.

6. Who do we share data with and why?

Department for Education (DfE) - We are required to share workforce information (this is known as the workforce census) with the DfE, so they can fulfil their statutory obligations relating to data collection. We are required to share information about our school employees with the DfE under Regulation 5 of the Education \(Supply of Information about the School Workforce\) \(England\) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The DfE may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England. For information about how the DfE collects and shares workforce data for research purposes, visit their website at <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

Our Local Authority - We may be required to share information about our employees with our local authority under Regulation 5 of the Education \(Supply of Information about the School Workforce\) \(England\) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Other - We may also need to share personal data with payroll and pension providers, Occupational Health services, IT and HR system providers and regulatory bodies (eg Ofsted, DBS).

In all cases, we will take reasonable steps to ensure that all third parties comply with UK data protection legislation.

7. Retention Periods

Except as otherwise permitted or required by applicable law or regulation, we will only retain personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for as required to satisfy any legal, accounting or reporting obligations, or as necessary to resolve disputes.

Full details on how long we will retain your personal data for is set out in our Records Retention Schedule available on our website.

Data is securely deleted when no longer needed.

8. Security of your Information

We have put in place measures to protect the security of your information (ie to prevent it being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way). In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know.

Third parties will only process your personal information on our instructions and where they have agreed to treat information confidentially and to keep it secure.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and the Information Commissioner's Office of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

9. International Transfers

Every effort is taken to try and use third party suppliers within the boundaries of the European Economic Area (EEA) to ensure the data protection rights of individuals. However, there may be occasions where the system supplied by an organisation is outside of the EEA for example the United States. Where personal data is transferred outside the UK or EEA to a country that is not designated as 'adequate' in relation to data protection law, we will ensure the personal data is adequately protected using International Data Transfer Agreements, appropriate security measures, and other appropriate safeguards.

10. Your data protection rights

Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal data. There are some exemptions, which means you may not always receive all the information we process.

Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

Your right to erasure - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to restriction of processing - You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your information in certain circumstances.

Your right to object to processing - You have the right to object to us processing your information where we consider this is necessary for us to perform a task in the public interest. You can also object to us using your contact details to send you direct marketing or fundraising communications.

Your right to data portability - This only applies to information you have given us. You have the right to ask that we transfer the information you gave us from one organisation to another or give it to you. The right only applies if we are processing information based on your consent or under a contract (or in talks about entering into a contract) and the processing is automated.

Your right to complain - We work to high standards when it comes to processing your personal information. We hope you will always be happy with the way we handle your information, however if we have not met your expectations, please let us know so we can put things right. To do this, please email Sarah Bedford, our HR Manager in the first instance. If Sarah Bedford is unavailable, please contact the Data Protection Link Officer, Christine Walker. If you remain dissatisfied, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). The ICO's contact details are available at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns>

You are not required to pay a charge for exercising your rights and we have one calendar month from data of receipt of a valid request to respond to you. For complex requests, this timeframe may be extended by a further two calendar months.

Please email us at christine.walker@learntolivefederation.co.uk if you would like to make a request or complaint or contact the school office.

Further information about your data protection rights, can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office website at www.ico.org.

11. Further information

If you have any queries about this privacy notice, or the way your personal information is being handled by the school, see our Data Protection Policy which is publicly available on our website or contact our Data Protection Officer, Jenny Goodall at Devon County Council.

12. Updates to this Notice

We will update this notice periodically. The latest version will always be available on our website or from the Data Protection Link Officer, Christine Walker, and we will notify you when any changes are made.
